note: Note that the following was reported three weeks before Antung fell to the Nationalists on 25 October 1946. It is given here for its informational value.

25X1X6

1. The Communists are using the Antung Puppet Navigation Bureau ships, all ships of the Antung Shipbuilding Company, and most individually-owned ships to transport silks, cotton goods, machines, and some equipped soldiers to Antung.
2. Railroads in the Communist occupied areas near Antung are still in good condition, except from Chiaotou (123-45, 41-14) to Lienshankuan (123-45, 40-58). This stretch is slightly damaged.
3. There are the following anti-Communist organizations in the Antung area:
 - a. The first is the Northeast Revolution Army, composed mostly of Kuomintang members lead by SUNG Ting-ming (宋鼎銘). They invaded Chuangho (123-03, 39-42) in early July and outfitted themselves from Communist supplies. They frequently invade Communist district governments, and disrupt Communist administration.
 - b. The second group consists of about 800 members from various Antung hsien. Their leader is TSAO Chi-min (曹濟民). They are known as the Fu Tang (Rich Party).
 - c. Another unknown group of underground agents recently burned the Communist ammunition dump at Pitsuwo (122-23, 39-25), and in late July they burned the Antung district government gasoline storage.
